

The Gazette

Thursday, February 21, 2008, p. A-18

Vive le Montréal libre?

You report that Daniel Turp, the Parti Québécois spokesperson on international relations, welcomed Kosovo's attaining "political sovereignty, noting this is also his party's goal for Quebec."

Turp should realize that Kosovo's situation within Serbia more closely resembled that of Montreal within Quebec than Quebec's within Canada. His logic might be supporting the independence of the Montreal region.

Mark Roper

Westmount